14 Charles St, Springsure

RESIDENCE WITH SHEDS

This is a unique property with a four bedroom home accompanying the triple garage and a large storage shed with a mezzanine floor. This property could be a retail property, or a storage facility, then again it could house your employees, their work vehicles and any extra equipment or machinery they would need. The residence is two story Queenslander home that has been enclosed with cement sheeting. All the internal verandah flooring is polished timber. The four bedrooms have lino with dual access and split system air conditioning. There are two bedrooms downstairs and two bedrooms upstairs. The kitchen is downstairs and the main bathroom is upstairs with a powder room downstairs for convenience. This large block has room for more development, just what do you want to use it for, is the question. With the condition of this property and the size it will not last long on the market. Call now for any further information or to arrange an inspection.
