From the entrance way there are two bedrooms to either side. Then up the stairs and we have another two bedrooms and the large bathroom. The lounge and dining area is huge to say the least. Here is where we have the trap door with steps leading down to the cellar an enticing feature of this property. Then off to the side is the kitchen with a side patio that leads either to the immaculate gardens or to the laundry. From this patio through the hobbit door way we have the large verandah over looking the sweeping front entrance driveway. Once outside in the garden you have options of relaxing under the huge covered area or splashing in the pool. The pathway up the property leads to the double carport and then separate from the main house is the granny flat and the large shed with 3 phase power.
